

F.R.O.D.O.'s FIRST SUMMER BALL
15th June 2010
Kensington Roof Garden

Founded by Robin Nydes in June 2006, F.R.O.D.O. – Foundation for the Relief of Disabled Orphans has a focus on children with disabilities, abandoned in state-run institutions and in vulnerable environments in the community.

The F.R.O.D.O. Summer Ball on Tuesday 15th June at the Kensington Roof Gardens is celebrating the charity's 4th birthday and raising funds for the newly launched F.R.O.D.O.Kids WellBeing Campaign (www.frodokids.org/WellBeing).

The auctioneer on the night is Lord Jeffrey Archer and prizes include a holiday in a private home on the beautiful island of Nantucket, near Boston in the US; have a character in the next Sidney Sheldon blockbuster named after you; a football feast with tickets for games at Chelsea and Manchester United.

For more information, contact Vanessa Cummings, CEO, on 020 8741 5484 or 07778 742203.
